 - (iv) In the prescribed form.
- c. Applications for Crew, Junior, Sailing School and Social membership must be in writing and on the prescribed form.

8. Membership fees

The membership fee is the amount decided by the management; and

- a. is payable when, and in the way, the management committee decides.

9. Admission and rejection of members

- a. The management committee must consider an application for membership at the next meeting of the committee held after it receives:
 - i. the application; and
 - ii. the appropriate membership fee for the application; and
 - iii. after confirmation of satisfactory referee checks.
- b. The management committee must decide at that meeting whether to accept or reject the application or adjourn the meeting until all relevant information is received. However the management committee may reject an application for membership in the case where an applicant has been convicted of an indictable offence or has conducted himself or herself in a way considered to be injurious or prejudicial to the character or interests of QCYC.
- c. If a majority of the management committee members present at the meeting vote to accept the applicant as a member, the applicant must be accepted as a member.
- d. The Secretary of QCYC must, as soon as practicable after the management committee decides to accept or reject an application, give the applicant a written notice of the decision.

10. When membership ends by resignation or forfeiture and other disciplinary action

- a. Any member may resign from QCYC by giving a written notice of resignation to the Secretary.
- b. Any member who fails to pay their membership dues within 2 months of the due date for payment shall have their membership rights and entitlements suspended forthwith;
- c. Any member whose membership becomes suspended because of clause 10 b above, and either refuses or fails to pay their membership dues including any arrears owing in respect thereof, shall be liable to have their membership forfeited and cancelled without further notice.
- d. The resignation or forfeiture of membership takes effect on:
 - i. the day and at the time the resignation notice is received by the secretary; or
 - ii. if a later day is stated in the notice—the later day; or
 - iii. in the case of forfeiture of membership, when the management committee resolves that the member’s membership shall be deemed forfeited and cancelled pursuant to Cl. 10 c above.
- e. The management committee or a disciplinary sub-committee consisting of 3 persons may terminate a member’s membership or impose a sanction as set out below in paragraph g, if the member:
 - i. becomes convicted of an indictable offence; or
 - ii. does not comply with any of the provisions of these rules; or
 - iii. conducts himself or herself in a way considered to be injurious or prejudicial to the character or interests of QCYC.
- f. Before the management committee or a disciplinary sub-committee terminates a member’s membership, or imposes any other sanction as set out in paragraph g, the committee or disciplinary sub-committee must give the member a full and fair opportunity to show why the membership should not be terminated or whether any such other sanction as may be available ought not be considered to be imposed.
- g. Following a disciplinary hearing, the management committee or a disciplinary sub-committee may impose any one or more of the following sanctions in lieu of termination of membership; (i) Suspension of the member’s membership for a period not exceeding 12 months; (ii) imposition of a fine of any monetary amount not exceeding the equivalent of $2,000.00; (iii) issuance of a caution or reprimand.
- h. If, after considering all representations made by the member, the management committee or a disciplinary committee decides to terminate the membership, or impose an alternative sanction, the secretary must give the member a written notice of the decision.

11. Appeal against rejection or termination of membership or other disciplinary sanction imposed

- a. A person whose application for membership has been rejected, or whose membership has been terminated, or who otherwise has had a sanction imposed upon them, may give the secretary written notice of the person’s intention to appeal against the decision.

- b. A notice of intention to appeal must be given to the secretary within 1 month after the person receives written notice of the decision.
- c. If the secretary receives a notice of intention to appeal, the secretary must, within three months after the day of receipt, call either a management committee meeting or a disciplinary sub-committee meeting authorised by the management committee comprised of different persons to the ones who heard the original matter under appeal to decide the appeal.
- d. At the appeal hearing the applicant must be given a full and fair opportunity to show why the appeal should not be rejected or the membership should not be terminated or the sanction should not be imposed.
- e. The management committee or the disciplinary sub-committee members who rejected the application or terminated the membership or otherwise imposed a sanction must be given an opportunity to show why the application should be rejected or the membership should be terminated.
- f. An appeal must be decided by a majority vote of the members present at the meeting of the management committee or disciplinary sub-committee.
- g. If a person whose application has been rejected does not appeal against the decision within 14 days after receiving written notice of the decision, or the person appeals but the appeal is unsuccessful, the Club must, as soon as practicable, refund the application fee paid by the person on a pro-rata basis.
